Islemount does not disclose any Personal Information obtained about its clients, except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, allowing Managing Directors, officers, associates and analysts of Islemount and its affiliates access to information and making information available to Islemount's service providers such as its attorneys and accountants. Islemount does not disclose Personal Information to any other unrelated third parties except to the extent appropriate.

Islemount is committed to preserving the confidentiality and security of its clients' Personal Information and maintains physical, electronic and procedural protections designed to guard Personal Information against impermissible disclosure.
